LIABILITY FOR CONTENTS

In accordance with § 7 Abs.1 German Telemedia Act (TMG), we as service provider are responsible for our own contents on our websites. However, according to §§ 8 to 10 TMG, we as service provider are not obliged to monitor the transferred or stored data. Furthermore, we are not obliged to search for circumstances indicating illegal activities. Obligations concerning deletion or use blocking of information according to general law are not affected. Any liability in this respect is, however, only incurred from the moment that knowledge of the specific breach of law is gained. As soon as we become aware of a legal violation we will remove such contents immediately.

LIABILITY FOR LINKS

Our websites contain links to external websites of third parties on the contents of which we do not have influence. Therefore, we cannot take on any liability for foreign contents. Hence the respective provider or operator of the linked websites is responsible for his/her contents. The linked sites of the relevant website were reviewed at the time of the establishment of the link for possible legal infringements. No illegal contents were found at the time of linkage. A permanent content control of the linked websites, however, is not deemed reasonable without concrete indication for a violation of the law. In case we gain knowledge of law violations, we will immediately remove such links.

COPYRIGHT

Any contents and works created by the website's operator on the website are subject to the German Copyright Law. Actions of copying, editing, distribution and any form of processing to which the Copyright Law does not apply, a written consent is required of the respective author or creator. Downloads and copies of this website are only permitted for private non-commercial use. In case contents on this website are not created by the website's operator, Copyright Laws of third parties apply. Third-party contents are individually marked. Should you take notice of a violation of Copyright Law, please inform us. As soon as we gain knowledge, we will remove such contents immediately.
